To the South African Philosophical Community,

Last year I wrote a book review about The Second Sexism with my colleague Ward Jones, which was published in Hypatia. While I have apologised privately to Professor Benatar, I feel as though I also need to publicly apologise for, and retract, the personal attack that was made at the end of that review. Although the book is certainly challenging to me on a philosophical level, and I stand by the philosophical challenges made in the review, the personal attack at the end of the review in question was both unprofessional and unacceptable, and I am sorry for the part I played in allowing it to be published.

Sincerely,

Lindsay Kelland
